AN INTERGENERATIONAL WORKSHOP & COMMUNITY CONVERSATION

ON IDENTITY, BELONGING & THE EXPERIENCES OF MUSLIM YOUTH

OPEN TO PARENTS, STUDENTS & EDUCATORS

Join ISB Atlanta and One Ummah Project for an intergenerational conversation about the experiences and challenges facing Muslim youth. Together, we'll explore identity, belonging, social pressures and navigating different cultural environments—and how families, schools and communities can create spaces where young people participate fully and confidently.

A welcoming, discussion-based workshop focused on conversation and shared understanding.
